Dear Judge McMahon:

This is to advise the Court of the status of the proposed Restitution Orders in the above-referenced cases.

The Government is in the process of finalizing the victim list and proposed restitution orders for defendants James Marquez and Daniel Marino. We anticipate submitting the proposed restitution orders for the Court's approval by the end of next week.

The Government is consulting with counsel for the victims, to provide the Court with a proposed schedule for distributing the forfeited funds once the Department of Justice ("DOJ") approves this Office's restoration request. Pursuant to the Court's directive, this schedule will provide for a reserve fund for the Bayou Redeemers.

The distribution of forfeited funds to the victims under the restitution orders should not be delayed by the adjournment of the sentencing of defendant Samuel Israel. The funds forfeited from James Marquez and Daniel Marino can be distributed to the victims after the entry of the restitution orders and approval of this Office's restoration request. The Clerk of the Court does not need to wait for the sentencing of defendant Samuel Israel to
